The Court of Appeals decided that the school fund is not entitled to share in the proceeds of the foreign insurance companies.

The Cumberland Commercial, lately published at Burdette, has been removed to Somerset, where it is being published under the name of the Mountaineer.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has come out against the proposition to reduce the congressional representation in the South and it is said no legislation in this direction will be put through during his term of office.

The government report shows that the tobacco crop of the United States is short, and that possibly explains why high prices are being paid. Many growers think that still higher prices will prevail later in the season and many are holding their crops.

It is to be sincerely hoped that at the next November election when the voters of Kentucky will be given an opportunity to say whether they favor a continuance of the secret ballot or a return of the viva voce system, that the latter will be adopted by an overwhelming majority. The secret ballot, if anything, is more corrupt than the old way of voting, and the masses demand that it be abolished. No man should be asked to go to the polls and cast his vote publicly for any man or measure.—Jesseine Journal.

Julia Higgins, of this city. She is of the petite brunette type, and is a girl whose loyal, lovable disposition impresses all with whom she comes in contact. She will be greeted, not as a stranger, but as a special favorite by her many friends in Richmond. The News says:

Last evening promptly at 9 o'clock at the beautiful McRoberts home on Broadway, Mr. Lewis Neale, of Richmond, and Miss Susan Elizabeth McRoberts, youngest daughter of the late Thomas McRoberts, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. It was the desire of the family, owing to recent bereavement, that the wedding should be very simple, and every detail was admirably carried out in conformity to this idea. The bride and groom were in the large western parlor happily commingling with their friends, holding as it were a levee when Dr. E. M. Green, who had been the bride's pastor since childhood, came forward and performed the ceremony in a most pleasing and impressive manner, after which their admirers gathered around them and showered them with good wishes. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom repaired to the dining room, being followed by a number of their near relatives, where a sumptuous dinner was served. After they had finished the few remaining guests were seated. The home, though artistically decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, was entirely unostentatious, all of the gorgeousness that is usually displayed on similar occasions being omitted. The dining room was quite pretty, in white and green, the table had a profusion of Southern Saxifrage entwined around it, also four streamers running to the ceiling, altogether making a lovely scene. The bride was handsomely gowned in white lace over silk and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. M. Hume, Mrs. Howard Neale, and Mrs. Neale Bennett, Mr. James Bennett, Mrs. Mary B. Thomson and little son, Master Harry Neale Thomson, Miss Julia Higgins, of Richmond, Miss Margaret Rie, of Philadelphia, and Miss Belle Norris, of Louisville. The happy couple left last night on the Southbound train for New Orleans, they will probably go from there to California. Upon their return they will be at home, Hotel Givind, Richmond, Ky.

Miss G. G. Corrells entertained in a delightful manner on last Tuesday in honor of her guests, Mrs. Poter and Mrs. Caldwell, of Harrodsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thomas were in the city last week en route to their home at Katil Springs. They had been in Lexington visiting Mrs. Thomas' mother, Mrs. Hanson.

Reports from the bedside of Mrs. L. French, who was so seriously burned recently, say that she is doing as well as can be expected. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. J. W. Finney, of Richmond, son of Boss Finney, of West Irvine, was in the first of the week.

Attorney L. A. West was in Richmond Wednesday. —Chas. Shepherd, formerly a citizen of this county, now residing near Kirkville, is visiting relatives here.—Estill County Herald.

Clarence E. Woods, of Richmond, Ky., one of the distinctively brilliant journalists of the Blue Grass State, who is spending the winter in Washington with Senator McCreary, has been nominated by the Senate to succeed to the office of the Secretary of the State.

James O'Brien, of Paris, has addressed a letter to Gov. Beckham in which he charges the Governor, Auditor Hager and Gen. Perry Haley with disregarding a promise to appoint Emmett Dickson circuit judge. Judge Stout, of Woodford, was appointed, and the Louisville Herald, Republican, says the appointment means an alliance between the Blackburn and Beckham forces by which Blackburn is not to be opposed for reelection to the Senate, and that Gov. Beckham will attempt to defeat McCreary when his term expires.—Cynthiana Democrat.

The Courier-Journal under date of Jan. 10, had an eighth of a page advertisement, in which they announced that they would pay the sum of $100 in four prizes to the person who would send in the best solution, how to best advertise the city of Louisville. The Courier says: "A city needs to be advertised, and constantly advertised, and they are willing to pay for ideas as how to best advertise the city. That is what we are trying to tell the people of Richmond and Madison county, that a city and county needs to be advertised, and constantly advertised, and if by circulating 5000, fifty page magazines on fine book paper, devoted exclusively to the history of this city and county will not advertise us, what will?"

Defenses Cannot be Cured. By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion, of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound in your ears, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous services.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. P. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Some Points of Interest.

Amongst the many points of interest in Richmond that we will devote considerable space to in our History of Richmond and Madison county are the following: The County Court House illustrated with a large portrait, when it was built, by whom, the cost and something concerning the notable trial and great orators; the Government Building, the pride of our city; the Patis A. Clay Infirmary; our Water Works System, the greatest system in any town under 25,000, and better than most of them in the State; our system of Electric and Gas Lights; our Police and Fire Department; our County and City Officials; the principal streets of Richmond; twenty of our most beautiful residences; our churches and their pastors; the educational advantages of the town and county, illustrated with original half-tone engravings of the buildings and the facilities; our manufacturing advantages; the professional men; a portrait of every leading business house and business man in the city, our banking facilities; the secret orders; the social part of our town and county; the Public Schools, etc. Each of the articles will be highly illustrated. Besides the above named places we will give a history of Madison county, past and present and the many advantages of this county shown. We will also have portraits of a number of the fine farms in the county and an individual history of each town in the county separately, illustrated. We will also include portraits and sketches of a large number of the most prominent men who are or were sons of old Madison.

This book will contain fifty pages completely filled with local matter, printed on fine book paper, illustrated with over three hundred engravings, and will be sold at a price that will make it a valuable addition to your library. There will be two thousand extra copies to be sold to non-subscribers. Dealers in this county should send out two or three of these beautiful books to their friends or relatives in the county. If you have any pride in your home county, this is a duty you owe to her. Help us advertise Richmond and Madison county. We are going to give away five thousand of these books free in this and adjoining counties. Extra copies will be sold at twenty-five cents each. Send in your order now.

Louisville and the State. As the resolution quoted below was offered by the editor of the Lancaster Record, that paper reproduced the following editorial from the Louisville Times:

The following resolution was adopted unanimously during the Kentucky Press Association:

"Whereas, The Commercial Club and business men of Louisville have done so much work to advance the interests of not only their home city, but the entire State, and have shown their determination to bring before the business world the many resources and natural advantages of Kentucky; be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Kentucky Press Association, pledge them our most earnest assistance, and will put forth every effort to help them in their noble undertaking.

"Resolved, That we further manifest our appreciation of their work by bringing before the merchants of our respective localities the splendid wholesale markets of the city of Louisville, and urge them to give their orders to these enterprises. Without question, the country press is the strongest force in the State for the eradication of local prejudice, the overthrow of sectional narrowness, the inculcation of broad ideals of civic growth and the inauguration and maintenance of all movements looking to the present welfare and future advancement of the Commonwealth.

Louisville has long recognized that success in her fight for commercial supremacy in the South is dependent in chief measure on the co-operation of the State press, and the adoption of the above resolution is in itself a cause for fresh and lasting encouragement in an effort that will not be abandoned short of well-earned fulfillment. But while recognizing in full the character of the assistance offered, Louisville desires that the members of the Kentucky Press Association shall realize fully the understanding on her part that her interest and those of the State are one, and that, wherever and whenever the opportunity presents itself, she stands ready and willing to do her share toward making Kentucky in all things great.

Art Club Notes. By a unanimous vote of the members present at Miss Bennett's, The Art Club of Richmond, accepted the courteous hospitality so kindly extended them by the order, and held its meeting, the 9th inst., at the Elks Club rooms.

Although the afternoon was decidedly the worst of the season, seventeen ladies braved the storm. The inclemency of the weather without, however, was soon forgotten, for on entering the spacious parlors the bright, genial rays from a mammoth anthracite stove gave an unmistakably inviting welcome. The business of the Club being disposed of, four table papers were read. Mrs. Russell's description of the Boston library was exceedingly entertaining, and none the less so was Miss Colyer's, of the National Library in Washington, D. C. Mrs. T. J. Smith's article on Home Making was interesting as well as beneficial in its special way, as was also Mrs. McCall's on the Sky Scraper, as it detracts from art in beauty and architecture.

The meeting was then adjourned until Monday afternoon, the 23rd, but not until all agreed that our friends, the Elks, are truly the Best People On Earth.

MATRIMONIAL. PRIZE-BREEDING.—A romantic courtship culminated in a happy wedding at Richmond on Thursday when Will Pryse and Miss Effie Breeding were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. They met at Richmond by previous understanding, and their homecoming was heralded by the joyous foot of Mr. Goodwin's as the train on which they returned was winding its way down the hill into town. The News heartily joins with a host of friends in wishing them a smooth and prosperous journey through life.—Beatville News.

NEALE-McROBERTS.—The Danville News contained the following complimentary notice of the wedding of two prominent young people of Central Kentucky. The groom, Mr. Lewis Neale, is one of Madison's sturdiest sons, and has long been a favorite in social circles here. Moral, upright, possessed with a handsome and charming personality and blessed with shrewd business sagacity, he is sure to succeed in life. His bride is well known here, where as Miss Susan McRoberts, has visited and spent a deal of time with her cousin, Miss Concerning the Cabbage Snake.

Professor H. Garmon, State Entomologist of State College, was recently the recipient of a supposed cabbage snake, sent to him by the editor of the Paris Kentuckian for examination and analysis. The terrible offender proved to be no other than what is commonly called "thousand legs." Mr. Garmon states that the true cabbage snake is a long, slender worm without legs, and is a parasite in certain insects and is sometimes left by them about cabbage. It is also perfectly harmless, and all the rumors concerning illness, etc., caused by eating them are wholly without foundation. Cabbage is a wholesome vegetable and is cheap, thus making it acceptable to the poor as well as the rich. All that is needed is care in removing the outer and worthless leaves when preparing the vegetable. There is no need whatever for any fear as to eating the vegetable.

Not Sustained.
The following notices appeared in the Lexington Leader of January 11:
"The Court of Appeals today reversed the Fayette Circuit Court in the case of S. M. Tudor vs. the Commonwealth, Tudor having been disbarred from practicing law."
The court here says that Tudor is certainly as creditable a witness as Smith, the only witness against him, and that Smith's evidence does not sustain the charge against Tudor.

Smith charged that Tudor accepted a fee of ten dollars to dismiss the prosecution against him (Smith) after he had been appointed to prosecute Smith.

Mr. Tudor, who is well known here, having formerly practiced law in this city, has figured quite prominently for some time past in various court proceedings in Lexington, and was finally disbarred from practicing his profession. Since his disbarment he has been engaged in other business. It is not known whether he will stand a new trial and thus make an effort to resume his practice or not.

Cutlets From the Yellow View Argot.
D. L. Moore sold his crop of tobacco to Nicholasville parties at ten cents a pound.

An eight-year-old child of Dude Laffoon died Friday morning with what was supposed to be consumption, Barial Saturday.
